public opinion was based, and they assert the reports to be too true. General Lee, a man of great candor, good ability, and large experience is scenes of horror, reports that 200,000 persons have been starved by the monster Weyler's plan of campaign, and Spain, driven by the cries of shame from the world, admits the truth by permitting my country-men to send food for the starving Cubans. Yet the Cardinal asserts that there is not a "particle of truth in the stories."

The Cardinal says these statements are made by the "jingoes," who desire to "push on war," and who would just as read by push on an "invasion" of Canada and England. This seems very like a dip lomatic appeal to the prejudices of the British, but it is hardly worthy of so high an authority. Who are these "jingoes" the Car-dinal refers to? The statements regarding these atrocities come from thousands who have fled from Spanish cruelty; from other thousands of disinterested people who have made personal investigations; and they are emphasised by the photographs of hundreds of starving people taken on the spot. The evidence has convinced 70, 000,000 Americans, besides a vast majority of the British nation, and it has shocked the enlightened conscience of the world. As a fact, the "jingoes" now include the Anglo Saxon race and all other liberty-loving men on God's green earth.

The American people say the murdered and starving innocents, and they now declare that this chronic nuisance, this barbarous despotism, this notbed of unspeakable crime at her very door, shall be abated. The nation has weigh ed the evidence, the mass s are the "jingoes," and because the Eritish feel a sympathy with a people struggling for that without Will leave Honolulu Tuesday at 5 P. Spain has owned Cuba nearly 400 years, but instead of making the "Queen of the Antilles" an earthy paradient.

earthly paradise, she has made it an agonizing hell.

The Cardinal is an historian. Does he remember that the wise conneil of Salamanca, composed of bishops and cardinals, denounced the proposed voyage of Colum bus as impious, these greatmen believing the world to be fit? Well, a pastoral letter of "the Bishop of Madrid" a few days ago, placing the Spanish forces under the "care of all saiots," and pro-mising "invulnerability," is evidence that Spain yet lives in the 15th century. By an irony of fate this was settled at "faithful" Ma-

When America was discovered, Spain hurried to appropriate it and soon her claim to the most valuable portion of the whole new world was acknowledged. In Cuba she made her first settlement, and the bistorian says the Indians, whom she forced into her fields and mines, were dying off so rapidly that she burried on negro slavery, that the "new laborers might become inured to toil before the Indians ceased to exist."

Spain conquered Mexico and Peru early in the 15th century, destroying civilizations, having a written history reaching back
